

Video: Who is afraid of AI?

This video deals with artificial intelligence and its implications in our lives in a humorous tone. Its approach is general and it can be used in classroom for a first presentation of the AI.

Watch the video below (3'04")

Synopsis

The main character « Guillaume » asks himself questions about artificial intelligence and its implications on our lives. Through an interaction with an off-screen character « The Hotline », general questions about AI are raised, prior to further questioning. It is now reminded that AI is first and foremost a scientific discipline.

